PRECIOUS BLOOD

On this solemnity we focus our attention on the Body and Blood of Christ. We listen to the story of the renewal of the old covenant, which Moses sealed by splashing the blood of animals on the altar of sacrifice, as well as on the people. Jesus, whose blood is the blood of the new covenant, shed that precious blood on the cross, saving us from sin and promising us everlasting life. Blood is the life source that courses through our bodies. The precious blood of Christ is the life source for our spirits. Today may we, like the psalmist, offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Lord, whose body and blood strengthens us to bring the Good News to everyone we meet. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

GOD IS GOOD!

Well, after 14 months of surgery, chemotherapy, radiation and radioactive treatment, I am finally finished with my cancer treatment. I knew the people of St. Pat's are special but I didn't know how truly blessed I was to be part of such a special family until I was stricken with cancer. We will never be able to put into words the love and kindness that we were shown during this difficult time. Thank you Fr. Jack for all your blessings and kind words. Lucy Hosni and my choir family are a great example of what our faith should be. They were always there for us with e-mails, cards, meals, prayers, and words of encouragement. My body was beaten down but my spirit was alive and well because of the love and kindness from all of you. Thank you! God bless you always! Susie & Joe Amorose.

The Year of the Priest

June 19, 2009 — June 19, 2010

Celebrating the wondrous gift of Priesthood in the Catholic Church

A Prayer for Our Priests

Almighty God, in your love you bless the Church with priests,
A sign of your faithfulness to your people.

May our prayerful encouragement, during this year and years to come,
Help them to remain faithful to the calling they have received from you.

As they tend to your flock, grant them a caring heart.

In them may we know the voice of Christ, our Good Shepherd,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.
